Dear Susan Hallam, Director, HALLAM INTERNET LIMITED

I am writing to you as someone who runs his own business, a project management company specialising in pan-European projects. I am also writing to you as a European Candidate of the 'pro European party', the Liberal Democrats.

I want to stay in Europe because to trade we need

- No borders - I remember the queues at the border before EU was in place - not only of people but miles and miles of lorries waiting for the custom clearance. Time is money.
- A common legal, monetary and regulatory network - less paperwork.
- A place at the negotiating table - making the rules and regulations and where possible removing them
- Europe to be more British. We have to be IN to fight withIN for the Europe we want
- Free movement of labour - skilled and unskilled workers available when and where the jobs are.

Because of our geographical position we cannot get 'out of Europe' any more than we can get 'out of the solar system'. But if Liberal Democrats are elected we can fight for the Europe we want. It is not about leaving Europe, it is about leading Europe.

I am therefore asking you, as a fellow business person, for your views about the future of the UK in Europe. Would you be better served if we stay in the EU? If so, what type of EU would you like to see?

If you share my views together we can return Bill Newton Dunn and the other Liberal Democrats to fight for a prosperous, peaceful, British Europe.

If you do not share my views and would prefer UK outside of EU I would like to know your views as to what role the UK should be playing in this globalised world.

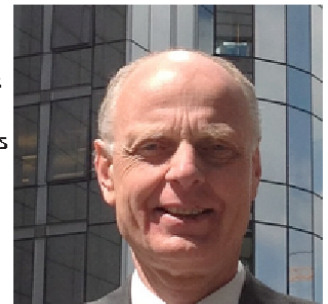

Please let me know what you think

George

George wishes the UK to play a leading role in the EU: where Britain leads others will follow, not the other way around. The motto must be: Leading not Leaving. Leaving EU is not an option it would be bad for jobs and business, bad for the environment and security - a view George is proud to share with 78% of all British businesses.
